COOK THE BOOK

Wednesday, September 21st, @ noon Lower Level Meeting Room

The library continues with Cook the Book where you pick out a recipe from the library, cook it, and bring it for all to try. The theme for September is "Back to School". Stop by the library to sign up today!

BOOK ENDS BOOK CLUB

Monday, October 3rd @ 6:30 Main Level at WPL

Come and discuss October's book selection, The Guest List by Lucy Foley.

Evoking the great Agatha Christie, The Guest List takes the reader to a creepy island off the coast of Ireland. This remote island is hosting a wedding no one is particularly happy to be at, and old secrets emerge- making this a murder mystery that keeps the reader guessing until the end.

Copies in regular print, large print, and audiobooks are available in the library. A book discussion will be held Monday, October 3rd at 6:30 p.m. on the main level of the library.

BANNED BOOKS WEEK!

Stop in the Library, September 19-24th to celebrate the freedom to read and spotlight current and historic attempts to censor books in libraries and schools. Throughout the week show support for the freedom to seek and express ideas. American Library Association's Office for Intellectual Freedom tracked, "729 challenges to library, school, and university materials and services in 2021." Join the public library in celebrating the freedom to read, while also learning what can be done to advocate for libraries.
