

The Burg Stacks

January is the time to WIPE YOUR SLATE CLEAN!

Have overdue fines? Wipe the slate clean with Food for Fines! The Library will accept food donations for the Iowa County Food Bank in lieu of fines through January. The program only applies to overdue fines and may not be used for lost or damaged items. For food safety, food must be in its original, unopened packaging and not past the expiration date. Homemade items, perishable items or glass containers are not accepted. Tomato Sauce, canned fruit, pancake, muffin and biscuit mix, peanut butter, canned peas, canned potatoes, and pancake syrup are especially needed.

Cook the Book

Winter Slow Cookin' is the theme of January's Cook the Book program. Choose a recipe to try out of one of the featured cookbooks and bring it to share Jan. 16 at noon. You'll be sure to snag a few new favorites as you sample from a wide variety of mains, sides and desserts all from a fuss-free crockpot.

Winter Wreath Crafternoon Sat., Jan. 19 from 1-4 p.m.

Join Ranger-Naturalist Cecelia Hagen from Lake Iowa Park as she demonstrates how to make a one-of-a-kind wreath out of natural materials and then make your own to take home! We will supply the grapevine, ribbon, and a few natural decorations. Feel free to bring your own decorations to customize your wreath. Reserve your spot by calling the library.
